CITY WILL TEAR DOWN SIGNS HERE

Strong Arm Methods to be Invoked Officials Say

MAY PROSECUTE VIOLATORS

Municipal Employees Will Tear Down Fifty

Signs which have been erected in violation of the law will be torn down by the city within the next few days, C. A. Bingham, city manager said Wednesday.

Business men who own the signs in question have refused to accede to the city's request and as a result strong arm methods will be necessary, Bingham says.

A fine may also be assessed against the offenders, Bingham says but it is not desired to carry out that section of the law unless the sign owners attempt to stop the city's action.

It is estimated by the city officials that there are more than 150 signs in the city which violate the ordinance in some particular. Of these there are perhaps 50 which are flagrant violations and will be torn down by city employees.

CLUES LINKED IN HALL CASE

Eyewitness' Story Backed up by Two Others

(By GERALD P. OVERTON) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — (United Press) — Efforts to make the testimony concerning the Hall-Mills murder mystery fit in with the eyewitness story of Mrs. Jane Gibson who is reported to have described the killings, occupied local authorities today.

Deputy Attorney General Mott at Trenton, still sifting a great mass of evidence placed at his disposal by Prosecutor Beekman.

Gibson's statement, which was secured by Detective Totten, of Trenton, lacks corroboration in essential details.

GIBSON STORY OF KILLING DOUBTED

(By FLORENCE M. NORTH) (Attorney for Charlotte Mills) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — (United Press) — I have reconsidered the killing of Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills, described by the latest witnesses to the tragedy and I do not believe the story she is said to have told the authorities.

POLICEMAN IS SUED FOR $5,000 BUILDING RECORDS ARE SMASHED

CHICAGO — (United Press) — The greatest building boom in the history of the United States is now in progress, according to figures obtained today by the United Press.

The rush to build is limited to no one city, state or section. Throughout the country carpenters' hammers are pounding, the figures show.

"A new city—larger by far than any in the world—would spring up almost overnight if all the buildings contracted for during 1922, were concentrated in one place," declared E. J. Brunner, editor of the American Contractor.

"Building records are being broken in practically all the large cities. Contractors report a shortage of skilled construction workers to meet the unprecedented demand," Brunner said.

"Residential buildings, factories, and business buildings lead the list. Schools are being built in greater numbers and at greater expense than at any time in recent years."

The total of permits to build in 20 large cities during the first nine months of 1922, is $1,213,210,943 compared with $1,065,099,040 for the entire 12 months of 1921. The cities included in these figures are: New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Boston, Detroit, Kansas City, San Francisco, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Cleveland, Los Angeles, Indianapolis, Seattle, New Orleans, Dallas, Buffalo, Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Atlanta.

The total of permits to build issued in greater New York, for the period from January 1, to October 1, 1922, shows an increase of $5,123,779 over the same period last year.

Boston spent four times more money for building this year than last. A record number of residential buildings are going up in Boston. More than 11,200 building permits were issued in Philadelphia between January 1 and October 1 of this year, as compared with 9,772 last year.

Figures for Dallas, Texas, show more than 5,000 homes built since January 1, 1922. Dallas has already spent more money for building in 1922 than was expended during the entire 12 months of 1921.

Building contracts in Missouri during the month of September, show an increase of 18 per cent over September, 1921.

San Francisco has spent more than twice as much for building during 1922 than for the same period in 1921.

Memphis, Tenn., figures show a doubled valuation of buildings. A large number of costly schools has thrown Atlanta's building bill to tremendous figures. Columbus, Ohio, has made the fastest gain in history.

Wheeling, W. Va., has built more houses this year than appeared during the entire span of the last ten years.

The state of Minnesota has increased its building program by 22 per cent.

Denver has nearly doubled its first figures for the last year.

Lansing, Mich., is building at the rate of 35 per cent in advance of last year. Detroit has had an unprecedented increase.

Portland, Ore., has broken all building records since 1910.

Construction of 1,260 residential buildings was the feature of the building program in Birmingham, Ala.

False Arrest Alleged by Man Accused of Intoxication

SICK, NOT DRUNK, HE SAYS

Jail Conditions Attacked — Lanker Defends City Prison

Boyd F. (Dick) Watkins, motorcycle policeman on the Lima police department, was made defendant Wednesday in a $5,000 suit instituted in common pleas court by Charles M. Williams, 54, salesman, 743 N. Main-st. The National Surety Co., bondsmen, is also made defendant to the action.

Williams accuses Policeman Watkins of illegally arresting him on the evening of September 23, on a charge of intoxication. He asserts that he was ill at the time Watkins took him in custody with what he terms "considerable force."

The arrest occurred on W. North-st., where officers were summoned, records show, by a telephone call. Williams recites in his petition that he was hauled to the police station despite protestations that he was very sick and suffering a great deal of pain.

SEARCHED HIM
At the station, he asserts, the police forced him to stand while they searched him.

He was then cast into an iron barred cell. The only sleeping accommodations at the station, the petition avers, are beds constructed of interwoven strips of iron. Williams, a man of 44 years of age, says he was obliged to sleep on one of the iron bunks, or choose the cement floor.

Moreover, he asserts, repeated requests made to officers asking that a physician be called were ignored. Williams also alleges that the jail is infested with vermin, which added to his distress.

Williams says in jail from 5 p. m. until 10 a. m., the day following arrest, he declares. He was then hauled into court and arraigned on a charge of intoxication, records show.

Judge Emmett J. Jackson, who presides over criminal court, dismissed the case.

WITHOUT WARRANT
Williams asserts in his petition that he was arrested without a warrant, and that he has suffered from his experience. A cold contracted in prison, he avers, has impaired his health and he has $5,000 damages.

Watkins who was transferred from the fire department to the police force January 8, 1921, declared Wednesday that the charges were untrue.

"That's hot stuff," he said when informed of the action. "This man was drunk when I got him."

Watkins is under bond of $1,000 signed by the National Surety Co. The firm is liable up to that amount in case a judgment is found against the officer. Officer Lawlor, who assisted Watkins in the arrest has not been sued.

FEAR "OUSTER"
Chief of Police Lanker, declared that the suit against Watkins is a part of a plan to oust the chief, administration and himself as chief.

"The jail is in a sanitary condition," he asserted. "It is disinfected daily. The only vermin are those brought by prisoners."

Lanker admitted that sleeping accommodations were not "a best."

"However," he said, "this is a jail, not a hotel."

U. S. DRY ORDER MAY BE UPSET

Stay Thru Court Against Ship Prohibition Sought

WRIT ASKED OF BRANDEIS

Associate Justice's Decision Awaited by Companies

WASHINGTON, — (Associated Press) — Despite the acquiescence of counsel for the federal government in the petition, Supreme Court Justice Brandeis today refused to grant foreign shipping lines a stay against the enforcement of Federal Judge Hand's decision at New York yesterday, which applies American prohibition regulations against their transportation of intoxicating liquors in American waters.

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — An effort by counsel for the ship companies which are seeking to prevent enforcement of the prohibition of liquor on foreign ships touching American ports and on American vessels outside territorial waters of the United States, to obtain from Associate Justice Brandeis of the supreme court a supercedas order to hold up the dismissal of their injunction proceedings by Federal Judge Hand of New York, was awaited here today.

Whether Justice Brandeis would act immediately on such a petition, or wait until after the supreme court meets November 13, was a subject of speculation. If a supercedas order were obtained shortly, it was pointed out, interference by the government with the operation of the appellants' ships would be prevented until final decision by the supreme court on the legal point at issue.

ACTION EXPECTED
Action also was expected on the issuance of temporary regulations submitted to Secretary Mellon which were understood to permit a certain latitude in the enforcement of the law pending a final ruling from the supreme court.

SINGER TO WED

Jerome Uhl to Marry Same Woman for Third Time

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Jerome Uhl, painter and opera singer, is to be married for the third time to the woman he first married in 1903—then Miss Elizabeth Norris, daughter of Henry Lattimore Norris of Philadelphia. The marriage will be solemnized in Rome, Mr. Uhl said, the former Mrs. Uhl and her daughter having sailed for Europe October 5.

Uhl was divorced in 1914, his wife alleging cruelty in that he paid more attention to his painting than he did to her. They were remarried in 1917, in Santa Barbara, Calif., but were divorced again two years later. This time Uhl had taken up singing and Mrs. Uhl charged he was more interested in his singing than in her.

KISS CLINICS PROPOSED TO BEAT DIVORCE

Soul Must be Put in Performance to Hold Hubby, Expert Declares

CHICAGO — (United Press) — Establishment of kiss clinics for marriageable girls, to solve America's divorce problem, was urged today by Irene Bordon, Parisian stage beauty.

Miss Bordon declared marriage in this country has become a farce thru failure of young wives to kiss properly.

"They kiss with their lips—not with their soul," she declared. "A woman's whole heart should be put into every kiss she gives her husband."

And the petite Irene, whose kissing has won the plaudits of continents, puckered her own luscious lips in a most seductive manner.

"A kissable woman will keep any normal man anchored at home," she declared, and all who heard and saw believed.

"Too many wives think they can hold their husbands thru their stomachs," she continued. "You can starve a man's body, but let his soul go hungry for love and the marriage knot will soon be untied. Scientific love is more practicable than domestic science."

In order to teach girls the value of a kiss before they are married, Miss Bordon suggested the operation of scientific kiss clinics in conjunction with all divorce courts. However, the entire responsibility does not fall upon the woman, the stage beauty contended.

"A real lover steals the first kiss," she said.

MURDER WITNESS IS WARNED

Told Not to Besmirch Victim in Phillips Case

WOULD SHIELD DEAD WOMAN

Jury Nearly Completed for Los Angeles Trial

(By LANSING WARREN) LOS ANGELES — (United Press) — Fred A. Trenaine entered vehement protest today against besmirching the character of his dead daughter as testimony in the trial of Mrs. Clara Phillips, charged with beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer, was about to begin.

The state alleges Mrs. Phillips beat Mrs. Meadows to death because of jealousy several months ago. It is charged the defendant took her intended victim to a hardware store where the hammer was selected.

Trenaine, broken hearted, made his protest to the district attorney. The father demanded action to prevent such statements except from the witness stand.

Armour Phillips, husband of the defendant, alleged by the state to have been the cause of Mrs. Phillips' jealousy, has been warned not to testify against the good character of the dead woman, it was disclosed today.

Phillips informed police of the murder immediately after it happened, requesting them to come and arrest his wife. Since then, he has visited her constantly and provided her with the best legal talent his income could afford.

SELECTION OF JURY
Nine men and three women were definitely chosen for the jury when court opened this morning. One more juror—an alternate—is to be selected before testimony starts.

Mrs. Phillips was unconcerned as the trial resumed. She laughed at discomfiture of spectators when the court was cleared after an outburst of "levity."

$250,000 BID FAILS TO PURCHASE ARGONNE HOTEL

Only One Offer Made for $600,000 Hostelry at Public Sale; Matter is Referred to Grindie. Referee in Bankruptcy.

An offer of $250,000 for the property of the Hotel Argonne was received by F. E. Harman, trustee, when bids were opened Wednesday morning in the office of W. L. Mackenzie.

This bid was made by Frank M. Colucci and C. K. Huenke, for the second mortgage holders in order that their claims might be protected. They were represented at the sale by John Roby.

As there were no other bidders the matter was immediately placed in the hands of H. D. Grindie, referee in bankruptcy, who will go over the various provisions of the offer and report on the same to the federal court.

It is possible that there will be public hearings on the sale of the property in order that all objections may be entered on the record and due cognizance taken of them. FORMAL REQUEST LATER

Grindie would not say whether any other bids will be received if they are offered. It is understood that several possible bidders were at the sale but would not bid until certain matters are cleared up.

Report of the opening of bids will be formally made Thursday morning at 9, Grindie indicated, and the public hearings will be held from time to time thereafter.

Of the $250,000 offered by the second mortgage holders $230,000 is for the real and personal property of the hotel and $20,000 for certain chattels covered by separate mortgages.

Property valued at more than $600,000 is involved in the deal. Contractors who supplied the materials and did the work say that it would cost that much to construct the hotel today.

Five Sets of Triplets, Two of Twins, Family's Record

WARSAW, Ind. — (United Press) — Five sets of triplets and two sets of twins, have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, in ten years of married life.

The Scotts' parents and 13 living children, boarded a west bound train in search for enough land to provide sustenance and employment for the whole family.

"We can't carry a Sunday school class, Madam," remarked the conductor to the mother, as she offered one fare.

"But they're my children," Mrs. Scott replied.

The family Bible was produced and disclosed the record.

There were Ashbell, Archer and Austin, each four and a half years old; Arthur and Arnold, each three and a half.

Alfred, Albert and Adolph, each 18 months.

Abel and Abner, each six months. The mother is 30 and the father 21. They lived near South Whittier. The father humorously remarked that they started the first children's names with the letter "A," intending to go thru the alphabet later.

BOY PUT ON TRIAL
Former Chicago Bank Messenger Faces Court Third Time

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Willie Dalton, 17-year old former bank messenger, laid aside his school books once more today to face his third trial for stealing $772,000 in bonds from the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank in February, 1921.

In the first two trials the jury disagreed.

Young Dalton, whose flight with the stolen bonds made him the quarry of a nation-wide search, was captured in a country pool room by a village marshal at Heyworth, Ill. The boy carried the stolen bonds in a satchel, which he tossed carelessly into a corner while he engaged in a game of pool. A reward of $25,000 was given to his captor.

MANY WOMEN IN OFFICE RACE

New Record Set in Number of Candidates

TWO SEEK SENATE SEATS

Seven Aspire for Places in Lower House of Congress

WASHINGTON, (United Press) — More women are seeking political office this year than ever before in the history of the country, according to information compiled by women's organizations here.

Twelve of the "fairer sex" successfully weathered the primaries and are seeking to defeat men for seats in the senate, the house or state governorship. Scores of others have stirred up warm political battles for men seeking minor offices.

The first woman to reach the senate is Mrs. Felton, "the grand old lady of Georgia," recently appointed to succeed the late Senator Tom Watson, until someone is elected next month to fill out his term.

Four women are running for the honor which Mrs. Felton received, while seven are seeking the state and one wants to be governor. The hopes of the women for senatorial seats rest largely with Mrs. Peter Olson of Wisconsin and Mrs. Ben Hooper, of Wisconsin, the only women to receive senatorial nominations of one of the major political parties. Both are Democrats.

The women for senatorial strength in the state, as revealed in the primary, will make it extremely difficult for Mrs. Hooper to win, but Mrs. Olson is understood to be giving Senator Kellogg a race in Minnesota that is "worthy of any man."

The Republicans have two women seeking election to the House, while Progressives and the Socialists each have one.

Mrs. Alice Robertson, the only woman member of the present Congress, wants to be re-elected, and came through the primary in good shape. A list of major women candidates for high office follows.

Pennsylvania, Rachel C. Robinson, Prohibition Party of Wilkesburg, is running for Senator Knox's seat.

Missouri, Mrs. Ben Hooper, is running for Senator Kellogg's seat.

OUSTED PASTOR HITS BACK

Nebraska Preacher Begins Fight for Reinstatement

DEFENDS HIMSELF IN BOOK

Removed Because of Questioning
Parts of Bible.

OMAHA — (United Press)—Rev. J. D. M. Buckner, of Aurora, Nebraska, retired as a minister of the Methodist church last September for alleged "heresy," of the recommendation of Bishop Homer C. Stuntz of Omaha, bishop of the diocese, fired the opening gun in his fight for reinstatement today when his book, "How I Lost My Job as a Preacher," came off the press.

The ousting of Buckner came as a result of an article published under his name in the Omaha World-Herald last spring entitled, "A Good God," in which Rev. Buckner branded many portions of the Bible as directly contradictory to the accepted Christian belief that God is good.

"I believe that God is good," he wrote, "and that the things the Old Testament ascribes to him are pretty bad and if performed by a citizen of Aurora, we would be horrified." Rev. Buckner declared, "I am compelled to believe either that God was once bad or that the record as written in the Bible is wrong."

"For instance, I do not believe that all the inspiration is measured by the intelligence as well as the faith and love of the writer."

"I do not believe that God told the Hebrews to kill the Canaanites, men, women and innocent children, and to confiscate their property."

"I do not believe that God told David to number Israel and that when he did it God became angry with David and sent a plague and killed 70,000 unoffending men."

"I do not believe that because a few curious men peeked into the ark God became angry and killed 50,000 innocent men."

"I do not believe that God caused two she-bears to devour forty-two playful children because they shouted 'Bald Head!' at Elisha."

"I do not believe as the 'old school' Christians believe, that salvation is secured by believing certain things and performing certain ceremonies; I believe salvation is progressive and takes place in the heart of man."

LETTER OF DENUNCIATION
These statements called forth a letter of denunciation from Bishop Stuntz, who declared himself "both amazed and shocked" at "such an unprovoked and unwarranted declaration of disbelief in the word of God," which he said had brought "unfavorable publicity" to the Methodist church.

Buckner said pressure was brought to bear upon him to retire as a minister voluntarily, to avoid the unpleasant publicity of a trial for heresy, but that he refused to do so and demanded trial. This was denied him and at a subsequent meeting of the conference, Buckner was quietly retired.

Resolutions denouncing the action of the conference at Omaha, passed by the official board of the Methodist church at Aurora, in which Buckner had preached for eleven of his 40 years as a Methodist clergyman, had no avail. Many members of the church urged the official board to hire Rev. Buckner in spite of the action of the conference, while others, including some of the heaviest contributors, say they are "thru with" the church. Since the entire membership is united in refusing to accept another minister sent out by the Methodist conference to take Rev. Buckner's place, it is probable that the congregation will dissolve.

Buckner has been deluged with letters of encouragement and sympathy from church people, educators and ministers of many faiths, among whom a number declared they also "have doubts—but don't preach them."

A split between the preachers of the "old school" and the "new school" of Christianity threatens in Nebraska, as a result of the publicity given these letters, which will be heightened by the charges made by Rev. Buckner in his book.

LOS ANGELES — Session of the third trial of Arthur C. Burch, for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, were resumed today in the court room after a day given over to open air hearings at Beverly Glen and Santa Monica Canyon.

The jury also was shown the room Burch occupied in a hotel directly across the street from Kennedy's offices.

ALLEN HOGS ARE FED SUCCOTASH

Of High Food Value, County
Farm Agent Says

SOY BEANS RICH IN PROTEIN

Make Fine Powder of Them
Ridge Advises

Succotash has become a favorite feed for Allen-hogs, J. J. Ridge, farm agent, says.

By planting soy beans in the corn and permitting the hogs to "hog it off" the farmer is able to give a balanced feed and at the same time save himself the necessity of carrying the crops.

Soy beans are very rich in protein and contain a very large amount of fat. It has been found that 20 bushels of soy beans have the same food value as 50 bushels of corn.

Two years the corn crop got off to a late start with the result that many farmers planted soy beans in the corn fields. Some of the fields where the corn was a total loss the land was disced and beans alone planted.

EXPLAINS METHOD
Many farmers have been asking Ridge for the best method of thrashing the soy beans. Tests have shown that a corn shredder will do the best work and will damage the grain the least.

By cutting down the rate of speed and thrashing while damp the beans will be removed from the plants with no crushing or cracking. They will flow from the machine where the shelled corn is expelled.

Bean hullers are the best but until farmers make soy beans a part of their regular rotations it is not likely hullers will become common. Regular grain thrashing machines have a tendency to shatter the beans.

In feeding the soy beans to cattle, horses and hogs after they have been hulled it is best to grind them into a fine powder. This is easily mixed with other feeds and balanced rations arranged.

HARVEY STARTS A NEW ARGUMENT

DECLARATIONS by Ambassador George Harvey that women have no souls will start a greater argument than have any of his previous utterances. It is not unlikely that his statements will result in a world-wide discussion of the question.

Our editor-ambassador to the Court of St. James is assuming a new role when he attempts to interpret our basis religious and tells womankind that she is not bound by its provisions—that the law is for men only.

Harvey goes to the Bible for his proof. He has failed to find any provisions pertaining to woman, he says. He has gone so far as to suggest to the Author's Club of London that it take the initiative in drafting a set of commandments for women.

We have been getting along pretty well under the old order and Mr. Harvey's enlightenment comes as a rude shock. We had supposed that woman was bound by the commandments as much as man. We would prefer to go on thinking this, Mr. Harvey's "discovery" notwithstanding. The ten commandments as they have stood for hundreds of years seem to cover most every point men and women need to observe. It would be as reasonable to have a prohibition law for men and one for women as it would to have a different set of commandments for them now.

DID WILSON DEFEAT GERMANY?

THE question as to who really won the World War has caused much argument. America likes to believe she won it and none can doubt that our men and dollars played a dominant part in bringing the struggle to a close.

Now comes a learned professor, Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, of a southern university, and declares that Woodrow Wilson won the war with his speeches—propaganda. These were dropped into the Teuton trenches and had their effect, he argues.

The professor may be right in part. We do not think propaganda alone was responsible for the victory of the Allies. We do believe, however, that our great war president—a man of vision and a friend of humanity—will be regarded by our children and our children's children as one of the greatest men our country has produced. It is regrettable that men must pass to the Great Beyond and their bodies become a part of Mother Earth again long before their real worth is realized.

JOY FOR THE GOLFER

MARK H. BARWISE, Maine delegate to a convention of spiritualists in Chicago, is quoted as promising golf fans that they will have their game after they pass into the hereafter.

The prospect will appeal to the thousands who would be unable to accept any condition in eternity as truly joyful without golf.

From cradle to grave, we are reminded of the "joys of work." Somehow, the predictors neglect to include time clocks, trial balances, dustrags and lathes in their pictures of eternity's equipment.

AVERAGES

IN New York subway you now can ride nearly 27 miles on a five-cent fare, said to be the world's record for the price.

Not many will take advantage of the opportunity except people who are misers with money, spendthrifts with time.

If everybody rode the full 27 miles for the nickel, the fare would have to double or triple. Most subway passengers ride a shorter distance, by the law of averages. The low fare is based on this law. So is everything else in life. Study the law of averages. It is a skeleton key to success, also to a knowledge of human nature.

DEPENDS

TEN days in jail and a fine of $100, says a California justice to a world-famous pilot of racing autos, who had pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding. Officers claimed he was "making" 70 miles an hour.

Do it on a racetrack and it brings medals, big money and applause. Do it on a public highway and the judge hands out a jail sentence and fine.

Einstein is right. Everything is relative, changes with time and place, "depends on circumstances."

RETURN

STYLE makers announce that women will wear their hair pompadour again. That means a return of the unsanitary "rat."

The companion story comes from the Panama Canal, where the steamship Felix Taussig passes thru, bound for Atlantic ports. In its cargo is a large shipment of human hair, also 47 bales of goats' heads. Are they for the goats or fashion?

MELONS

SOMEBODY second thought suggests that some of these stock dividends are cucumbers or lemons, rather than melons.

A share of stock is really a mortgage on part of the actual physical value of business. Divide the total number of outstanding shares of stock into the dollars or physical value that the shares represent and you have the true value of one share.

When the number of shares is doubled, the original real value of one share is cut in two. Tripled, divide by three. And so on. That's simple arithmetic. A gallon remains a gallon whether you keep it in one jug or divide it into quarts or pints.

TO EAT YET NOT TO FATTEN

The almost deafening tumult maintained by a constantly increasing chorus of fat folks seems to carry this burden: What can we eat that is not fattening?

The fattening qualities of foods, alas, vary more or less directly with the goodness and palatability of the food. A distressingly minute ham sandwich or a plate of pork and beans which one might overlook altogether at a very formal luncheon, will fatten one more than a whole bale of other foods.

There are a dozen or more salads to be found on the most unpretentious menus and simple enough to be served in any household, appealing, entirely satisfactory for chewing. A la Fletcher, excellent sources of vitamins, good for roughage to stimulate natural digestive processes and intestinal motility, and best of all, filling and in a degree satisfying yet not very fattening. Have some salad. Patronize no table that bears no salad, if you wish to eat yet not to fatten.

Before examining the following list of foods which fill yet do not fatten, weigh in your mind the food value of an egg (80 calories), an orange (40 calories), one medium size potato (90 calories), a Vienna roll (115 calories) and a ball (one-third ounce) of butter (80 calories.)

List of foods which fill and to a reasonable degree satisfy the normal appetite yet have low caloric value and hence do not fatten—Cabbage, especially raw, in salad or stew, tomatoes, lettuce, asparagus, cucumbers, celery, rhubarb, pumpkin pie, cauliflower, spinach, turnips, radishes, mushrooms, squash, carrot, brussels sprouts, string beans, egg plant, Kohl Rabi, oysters, clams, meat broth, skimmed milk, butter-milk, cod fish, sauerkraut, beet greens, dandelion greens, water-cress.

Tes, hot or cold, coffee. Wheat bran in bran genus or biscuit. Watermelon, grapefruit, strawberries, lemons, muskmelon, peaches.

pineapple, orange, apricots, raspberries, cranberries, blackberries. Gelatin, bouillon.

As I intimated at the outset, the gourmand will find this list rather poor picking. Nevertheless, it would be ample to select a diet from which to sustain life even the one would have to eat nearly twenty-four hours a day in order to grow fat on it.

On another occasion, I'll give a list of foods which are chiefly to blame for the steadily increasing obesity of the country.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Socks for the Youngsters
I should like to know your opinion of socks for little boys and girls in the winter time. Our 4 year old youngster likes to wear socks and bare knees even in very cold weather, and friends are warning Friend Wife he will take rheumatism, pneumonia, malaria, etc., unless she puts long stockings on him.—R. B. D.

Answer—Socks and bare knees are very harmful for young persons. Children who go bare kneed even thru the coldest winter, seem to find it easier to keep comfortably warm than they did in other winters with knees covered; they seem to have less trouble with cold feet. They certainly acquire greater immunity to the common respiratory infections.

Benefit Acid and Kidneys
Is it injurious to the kidneys to eat three or four lemons every day? Will this hurtful digestion or do harm in any way? I seem to crave lemons.—L. C.

Answer—No. Smoking

I would be grateful if you will have the kindness to tell me how to stop cigaret smoking. I am anxious to help my boy but do not want him to know it.—H. J. M.

Answer—Some adequate severe discipline is the only way I know to stop boys from smoking. There is no remedy or treatment which can be secretly given with success. If the tobacco user can't break the habit I'll be glad to send him some helpful advice upon request.

Corn Meal Versus Wheat Flour
Please give the analysis and food value of a pound of wheat flour and a pound of corn meal.—M. G. W.

Answer—Corn meal: protein 9.2 per cent; fat, 1.9 per cent; carbohydrate, 75.1 per cent; mineral, 1 per cent; water, 12.5 per cent; calories, 1,660.

Wheat flour: protein 10.8 per cent; fat 1.1 per cent; carbohydrate, 73.6 per cent; mineral, 0.6; water, 11.5 per cent; calories, 1,580.

THE ARID OCEAN

(If Mr. Daugherty's ruling holds.)
Once on a time the sea was wet,
As wet as wet could be,
But nowadays you cannot get
A single drink at sea.

Closed is the bar that once with rye
Was stocked so plentifully,
For now the sea has been made dry
By Mr. Daugherty.

Time was the toper found relief,
When three miles out, but now
The heavy lines of hope's grief
Are graven on his brow.
The three mile limit's vanished quite,

And so in vain we sigh,
For there is no relief in sight,
Since all the seas are dry.

I gaze about me, west and east,
And also north and south,
But there's no chance, no not the least,
Of lessening the drought.

And so I mumble in despair,
As 'round the sea I blink,
"Here's water, water everywhere,
But nothing else to drink!"

SAY "BAYER" when you buy Aspirin

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or tablets you are not getting the genuine Bayer product prescribed by physicians over twenty-two years and proved safe by millions for colds, headaches, toothache, earache, neuralgia, lumbago, rheumatism, neuritis, and for pain in general. Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proper directions. Handy boxes of twelve tablets cost few cents. Druggists also sell bottles of 24 and 100. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monaceteicacidide of Salicylicacid.—adv.

six of them charged against modern Exes. No legerdemain about it. Bunkishment of Johnnie Barleycorn has saved the world. Abroad, to meet Cecil Lang, Delphos, whom I had not seen in many the day.

Talked with the last end of the football party to Columbus. Still in a stupor from the tobacco smoke in the Deshler rathskellar. Albeit, his wife realized her ambition. And did a shimmy dance in public. To the new factory, waving to Mayor Brud. Who seems to keep the city going even in darkness. Without any funds. He should try a bank. On the same lines, interest would only be book-keeping.

There's Ed Williams, the newly made Rotarian, and Dr. Clayton, of surgery fame. Strolled up Main-st, meeting Frank Bentz, the incubator of baby homes for busy people. A girl in Russian boots. But not her first offense against the conventional, as an early indiscretion barred her from the Eastern Star.

Lunched, on intimate, with my wife at The Argonne. Saluted by Manager Haefer, who has installed noble table lights since we were there acons ago. Great dining room filled and the rowdy Kivansians above stairs. All the discourse nowadays about the Amendment or the two-mill levy. Into a money, but nothing doing. The suave banker saying all the idle funds were in second hand cars. And rumored that Henry will cut Lizzie down to $200 before the end of another year. Once paid $160 for a bicycle, which I had to work myself. Now John Dee's bi-products do the work.

In the late afternoon, chatted with Hank Simonton. Spoke in fyne friendliness to John Boose, the reator; and heard Col. In the past-pers, see where you can now get a guaranteed special Wetmore mattress, for man or child, for $12.85 if you hurry.

Dined alone, Auntie May-me having gone to St. Marys. Probably for a little Italian work on her and my rhen sister. But I still think I'm on the inside. Carson Dal. All the milliner; which reminds me I need a new hat. And I'll take it out of the election instead of the stock market. It's easier picking.

In the evening, tried to drive on the Boulevard-system streets. Albeit gave it up and went out in American-type Thence to Landeck, but the reports about that burg are all wrong. Or, I am a boob detective.

So, home to read a zippy taylor about her sixth husband in Hearst's International. And rubbing Mule Liniment on my bum knee, to bed.

Madam

Which oats are you serving—flavory flakes or insipid?

Do you realize how oats differ? Some grains are starved and puny. They yield insipid flakes.

Some are rich and savory. They yield those large and luscious flakes you get in Mother's Oats. We get only ten pounds from a bushel.

Mother's Oats, despite this quality, cost you only one-half cent per dish.

They cost you about one-tenth what wheat costs for the same units of nutrition.

In this supreme food, so essential to the young, get the kind children love.

Get that rich flavor which you find in every dish of Mother's Oats.

MRS. KRAUS WILL NOT CONFESS

Guilty of High Finance Charge, She Declares

INTERVIEWED IN HER CELL

Denies Using Money in Bootlegging Business

POMEROY — (United Press) — "I am not going to die. Statements that I am afraid that my health is poor are incorrect. Please do not give the public the impression that I am ill. I will stay in jail as long as long as they want me to. What else can I do?"

In the first interview she has granted since her alleged financial operations, estimated at more than $100,000, started in Ohio, Mrs. Susan Kraus made this statement to the United Press in jail here today.

"How did you invest your money?" she was asked.

"I do not think that it is necessary for me to tell. That is none of your business."

Sitting on her cot, the criss-cross shadows of the iron bars on the bed behind her, Mrs. Kraus, 63, looked more the part of the housewife knowing more about home remedies and needlework than of a bootlegger.

Referring to a published report that she had summoned county officials for the purpose of "confessing" Mrs. Kraus said:

"Confess? I have no confession to make. Confession is a sign of guilt and I am not guilty."

In response to another question, she said "The people who loaned me money did so because they received ten percent interest."

"It is reported," she was told, "that you played the stock markets and bet on horse races."

"But I look like I could tell you anything about a horse race," she said. "I paid these people all their interest and was on my way to pay up everything when they arrested me. What can I do now?"

"It is rumored that you used some of your money in a bootlegging business," she was told. "There is no truth in that. My poor son, he is in jail now. Please his heart, he is innocent, poor boy. My husband is locked up, and he is innocent, as he knows nothing about my business transactions."

LEARNS HE IS BRITISH SUBJECT AFTER 58 YEARS

DENVER, Colo. — For 58 years Robert Hazelwood, 78, has lived in the United States. He fought in the Civil War in the Civil War. After the war he settled down and became a prosperous merchant, served on juries and enjoyed all citizens' rights and privileges.

Then he found out he was a British subject. So was his wife, 68, whom he married years ago. She was a native of America, but took the citizenship of her husband. The Hazelwoods recently applied for citizenship papers.

HERE'S LAST MISSING HUSBAND

GOOD CHANCE TO COP $25 CASH

You May Detect Him at Noon Thursday and Collect

Only one missing husband—one of the two you have heard so much about—remains at large in Lima. The daredevil wasn't so slick. He fell into the hands of an observing woman and she is $25 richer today. He was detected Tuesday evening by Mrs. Eva Neff, 412 N. Central, while he was passing the Deisel-Wemmer plant on N. Main-st.

But you all will have a fine opportunity to pick off the other and collect $25 from The Lima News Thursday if you don't find him before.

Here's the dope. Precisely at 12:15 p. m. Thursday, the last of the two missing husbands will appear at the corner of Main and High-sts at the Woolworth building and will mail a letter on that corner. His picture, partly cut out, appears herewith to give you a good idea of his looks.

Easy money? We should smile. All you have to do is to be at the corner at 12:15 and pick him off. Tap him on the shoulder and say these words—these exact words remember: "You are one of the missing husbands." If you are correct he will "fess up" and you will receive a check for $25 from this newspaper right on the spot and in addition four tickets to the Sigma theatre where the great movie, "Missing Husbands," is being shown.

It has cost $25 to date and certainly will cost another similar sum to try out this experiment, but it has been worth it. It has been proved that "missing" men may wander about without detection for a time at least.

Be on time Thursday. There will be no delay. The missing hubby will appear from somewhere and drop a letter in the box at the corner at the appointed minute, not before, not later.

Motor Trouble Delays Justice

Justice was delayed by motor trouble when common pleas court convened Wednesday to take up consideration of a $1000 suit filed by C. C. Kitts, implement dealer against A. L. Burkholder to collect payment for a tractor.

The case went to the jury Tuesday noon, and was debated behind closed doors thru the remainder of the day without agreement. At night the jury were sent to their homes with instructions to report on the morning.

Only 11 members appeared. Bailiffs were sent scurrying about the building searching for O. O. Weaver, Spencerville, the missing man.

He was not to be found. Neither was he at home, it was learned by telephone. Just as officers were preparing to organize a searching expedition, Weaver appeared.

"My Ford broke down," he told Judge Becker, "but I fixed it up with baling wire and came on."

The jury resumed deliberations on the case.

Mr. R. R. McKibben Praises the New Plant Juice Herbal Medicine

RELIEVED HIS SUFFERING

Lima men and women in large numbers are now eating daily to see The Plant Juice Man at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, and hear him e his remarkable new herbal remedy, Plant Juice. People in all parts of Lima are now taking Plant Juice and already surprising reports are being heard regarding the relief local citizens are deriving through use of this medicine. Only recently, Mr. R. R. McKibben, of 325 South Pine street, Lima, a well known local resident, called on The Plant Juice Man and gave the following testimonial.

"For more than four years," said Mr. McKibben, "I had suffered from stomach trouble and pains in my back and limbs which became so severe at times that I could not get any sleep at night. It seemed that everything I ate would hurt me and after meals I would bloat up with gas and I suffered so much from the gas that I would have to rub my stomach to get relief after I had gone to bed."

"I took many different kinds of medicines but nothing helped me and then I read about Plant Juice and decided to try it. The change your remedy has made in me is remarkable. I can now eat anything I want and all of it I want and I do not suffer any bad after effects. The pains have left my back and limbs and I sleep fine. I can heartily recommend your Plant Juice for it seems to act like magic."

Said The Plant Juice Man: "A great many people have tried my Plant Juice and said afterward that it seems to act like magic. It is made from the juices of medicinal plant life and seems to have a surprising effect in cases of gas, fermentation of food, pain and agony from gas and bloating and other stomach troubles, as well as liver and kidney disorders."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office. Adv.

BATTERIES

Sending your words through space

If shipwreck or accident damaged the electric generator that sends a wireless message, and were no other power available, many lives might pay the penalty. For this reason wireless stations on land and sea have storage batteries for reserve power.

Most of the government and commercial wireless stations are equipped with Exides.

A majority of the farms and country homes lighted by small electric plants get their current from Exide Batteries. Nearly every message sent over the telephone system is carried by the current from an Exide Battery.

The same rugged reliability that makes Exide Batteries dominant in every industry where batteries are used is built into the Exide made for your automobile.

Exide Service Stations are equipped to be useful to you, not only in putting the right battery into your car, but in giving skillful attention to whatever make of battery you are now using.

Inquiries about batteries other than automobile batteries should be addressed to

NEW YORK—Prices were irregular at the opening of today's stock market. S. A. of eastern railroads, Mexican Oil Companies and other specialties were in good demand but some of the oil and metal shares were under pressure. Reading and Western Union preferred each advanced a second point for a new peak price for 1934. The market for S. A. of eastern railroads was strong, with the rail group showing strong gains. Maryland common, Western Union preferred, Northern preferred and New York Central preferred all advanced one point. Mexican Petroleum closed a point above last night's close. The first few minutes of trading were irregular, with some shares showing individual strength. United Fruit, Conso, and Gas, States, and Conso, all advanced a point or more. United Fruit common sold off - 8 of a point, and Conso Steel 1-1-1. The market was under a professional pressure, yielding 1-3-4 points. Standard Oil of California, Houston, and American Oil also were under pressure. A record oil shipper continued expression in the market for shares of oil carrying companies, most of which registered substantial gains. Some of the oil shares improved in sympathy, but a point or more being registered by New York Central, which was back in the market. Delaware and Ohio, Southern, and Lake Erie preferred and New York Central preferred, all advanced a point. However, bearish sentiment was predominant, being based on the fact that the weakness in the market and bond prices were the apparent cause of the market's drop. A recent advance in stocks resulted from the declaration of stock dividends and rumors of the same. Central banks made little effort to support their favorites and the market dropped 4-6 points to 1-1-1. The market was registered by Standard Oil of California, Associated, and Corn Products. Standard Oil of California was the outstanding exception, rising 1-1-1 point. Call money opened at 1-1-1 point. The market was under a professional pressure, yielding 1-3-4 points.
